

Master of Fine Arts—Arts Management

About the MFA in Arts Management

The Master of Fine Arts in Arts Management offers a well-rounded education through coursework from the Department of Theatre & Dance, the Manderson Graduate School of Business, and the College of Communications and Information Sciences.

In addition, students receive invaluable hands-on, practical work experience through a rotation of assistantships, including Assistant Business Manager, Box Office Manager, Patron Services Manager, Marketing Manager, Digital Marketing Manager, and Education and Outreach Manager. These assistantships enhance the students' professional experiences in all aspects of arts administration, making them desirable to arts organizations and corporate employers.

Enrollment into this program is capped at six per year. However, assistantship awards are limited to a maximum of two per year. Admission to the program and assistantships are awarded based upon a portfolio review, interview and acceptance into The University of Alabama Graduate School.
